

FREE LEGAL CLINIC FOR STUDENTS

February 20, 2012
(Teacher Work Day!)
4pm – 7pm

Neighbor to Neighbor
1200 South Blount St.
Raleigh, NC 27601

To be eligible for advice
or representation
students MUST be:

- a U.S. Citizen;
AND
- from a low-income
family.

We may be able to help with education issues such as:

- Denial of enrollment
- Academic failure
- Special education
- Suspension and expulsion
- Discrimination
- Mistreatment by SROs

Push Out Prevention Project (POPP)

an initiative of Advocates for Children's Services

(Advocates for Children's Services is a project of Legal Aid of North Carolina)

POPP attorneys provide free legal advice and representation to Wake County students who are being pushed out of schools as a result of academic failure, unmet special education needs, suspension, expulsion, school-based arrests and complaints, discrimination, denial of enrollment, and/or inadequate alternative schools and programs.

For more information: 919-688-6396 ext. 402 or PearlO@LegalAidNC.org